

The Ordinal

According to the Use of the Anglican Church in North America

Being the Form and Manner of Ordaining

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons

as approved for use by the College of Bishops

June 24, 2011

Draft 2.0

General Introduction and Notes on this Edition

- Services from this Ordinal are authorized to be used only without alterations to the text as given herein.
- The language and Doctrine of this edition of the Ordinal is descended from the historic Anglican Ordinals of 1549, 1662, and the American 1928 and Canadian 1962. The primary source for this document was the American book of 1928 because it has removed references to the English Monarch and Government, which makes more sense in our North American context. The other editions are used in places where there has been a variance between the various editions. Additionally, Peter Toon's "An Anglican Prayer Book," Preservation Press, 2008, was frequently consulted.
- The structure of this edition, however, does look to ecumenical and more recent Anglican Ordinals, especially the American BCP of 1979, the Church of England "Common Worship: Ordination Services," Study Edition of 2007, and the Province of Southern Africa "An Anglican Prayer Book" of 1989. The Ordo for all three Orders has been given a common outline to make the Liturgies more parallel to one another, thus making them easier to follow.
- This edition does not print language for either the Lord's Prayer or the Nicene Creed, as this language has not yet been decided upon by the College of Bishops. However, the "Veni, Creator Spiritus" remains in traditional language for its poetic qualities as an ancient hymn of the Church.
- Where appropriate, this edition seeks to reconcile the text of the Ordinal with the English Standard Version of the Bible.
- Since the historic Anglican Ordinals did not provide for an Old Testament reading or a Psalm, this edition consulted both the American BCP of 1979 and the Church of England, "Common Worship: Ordination Services," Study Edition of 2007. The Epistle and Gospel readings are those found in the historic Ordinals.
- This edition restores a more accurate translation of "et cum spiritu tuo" as "and with your spirit." For more information, please see Peter Toon's explanation of the phrase in, "An Anglican Prayerbook," Preservation Press, 2008, pg. 44.
- When the word "Minister" is used in this document, it refers to someone in one of the three Holy Orders: Bishops, Priests, or Deacons.
- In some places, a black line along the left side of the page indicates that the material in that section may be used at the discretion of the Bishop or Archbishop presiding at that Liturgy.
- It is suggested that future drafts of this Ordinal include forms for the Consecration of a Church, for the Institution of Ministers, and for the Installation of an Archbishop.
- The ordination Liturgy may be re-cast from contemporary (you, your, yours) to traditional (thee, thine, they) idiom when desired.
- Throughout the entire ordinal, language referring to the number of ordinands (he/them) has been placed in italics. This is to aid the presider in shifting plural language to singular, and singular to plural. This is also the case when referring to the gender of the ordinand (in the liturgies for the ordination of Deacons and Priests).

The Preface

It is clearly evident to anyone who diligently reads both the Holy Scriptures and ancient Authors, that from the Apostles' time these three Orders of ministry have existed in Christ's Church: Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. From the earliest days of the Church, these Offices were always held in such reverent estimation, that no one might presume to execute any of them, without being first called, tried, and examined, and ascertained to have such qualities as are requisite for the same. Candidates were approved and admitted thereunto by lawful Authority through public Prayer, and the Imposition of Hands. And therefore, to the intent that these Orders may be continued, and reverently used and esteemed in this Church, no one shall be accounted to be a lawful Bishop, Priest, or Deacon in this Church, or allowed to execute any of the said Functions, except they be called, tried, examined, and admitted thereunto, according to the Form set forth in this book, or have received Episcopal Consecration or Ordination already.

And none shall be admitted a Deacon, Priest, or Bishop, except they be of the age which the Canons may require.

And the Bishop, knowing either by himself, or by sufficient testimony, that a Person is of virtuous conduction, and without crime, after examination and trial, finding them sufficiently instructed in the Holy Scripture, and otherwise educated as the Canons require, may, in the presence of the Church, admit them as a Deacon, or admit a Deacon as a Priest, in such manner and form as follows.

The Form and Manner of Ordaining Deacons

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The people standing, the Bishop says

People Blessed be God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

In place of the above, from Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost

Bishop Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Bishop

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presentation

The Bishop and people sit. The Presenters, standing before the Bishop, shall present each Ordinand, saying
Right Reverend Father in God, we present N.N. to be admitted to the Order of Deacons.

Bishop Have these persons been selected in accordance with the Canons of this Church? And do you believe their manner of life to be suitable to the exercise of this ministry?

Presenters We certify to you that they have satisfied the requirements of the Canons, and we believe them to be qualified for this order.

The Bishop shall then require the Ordinands to take the Oath of Conformity saying

The Canons require that no one may be ordained a Deacon in the Church until such person has subscribed without reservation to the Oath of Conformity. It is also required that each Ordinand subscribe without reservation to the Oath of Canonical Obedience. In the presence of this congregation, I now charge you to make your solemn declaration of these oaths.

Each Ordinand then declares separately

I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and therefore I hold myself bound to conform my life and ministry thereto, and do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of Christ as this Church has received them.

Each Ordinand then declares the following Oath of Canonical Obedience as well, saying

I, N.N., do swear by almighty God that I will pay true and canonical obedience in all things lawful and honest to the Bishop of _____, and his successors: So help me God.

Each Ordinand then signs the Oath of Conformity and the Oath of Canonical Obedience in the sight of all present.

All stand. The Bishop says to the people

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, you know the importance of this ministry, and the weight of your responsibility in presenting these persons for ordination to the sacred Order of Deacons. Therefore if any of you know of any impediment or crime because of which we should not proceed, come forward now, and make it known.

If no objection is made, the Bishop continues

	Is it your will that these persons be ordained as Deacons?
People	It is.
Bishop	Will you uphold them in their ministry?
People	We will.
Bishop	In peace let us pray to the Lord.

The Litany for Ordinations

All kneel. Then the Bishop shall, with the clergy and people present, say or sing the Litany for Ordinations. The Ordinands shall either kneel or lie prostrate during the Litany.

At the conclusion of the Litany for Ordinations, the Bishop shall stand and say the following collect, first saying

	The Lord be with you.
People	And with your spirit.
Bishop	Let us pray.

Almighty God, who by your divine providence has appointed diverse Orders of Ministers in your Church, and who inspired your Apostles to choose into the Order of Deacons the first martyr Stephen, with others; mercifully behold these your servants now called to the same Office and Administration: so fill them with the truth of your Doctrine, and adorn them with holiness of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve you in this Office, to the glory of your Name, and the edification of your Church; through the merits of our Savior, Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

The Lessons

Following are the readings appointed for the ordination of Deacons. On a Major Feast, or on a Sunday, the Bishop may select readings from the Proper of the Day.

Jeremiah 1:4-10
 Psalm 119:1-8
 1 Timothy 3:8-13 or Acts 6:1-7
 Luke 12:35-40

The people sit. One or two Lessons, as appointed, are read, the Reader first saying

A Reading from _____.

A citation giving chapter and verse may be added.

After each reading, the Reader shall say

The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Silence may follow. A psalm, hymn, or anthem may follow each reading.

The Gospel

Then, all standing, the Deacon or other Minister reads the Gospel, first saying

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The Examination

All are seated except the Ordinands, who stand before the Bishop.

The Bishop examines the Ordinands as follows.

Do you trust that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Spirit to take upon yourself this Office and ministry, to serve God for the promoting of his glory, and the edifying of his people?

Answer I so trust.

Bishop Do you believe that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in accordance with the Canons of this Church, to the ministry of the same?

Answer I so believe.

Bishop Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ?

Answer I am so persuaded.

Bishop Will you diligently read the same to the people assembled in the church where you are appointed to serve?

Answer I will.

Bishop It belongs to the Office of a Deacon, to assist the Priest in public worship, especially in the administration of Holy Communion; to lead in public prayer; to read the Gospel, and to instruct both young and old in the Catechism; and at the direction of the Priest, to baptize and to preach. Furthermore, it is the Deacon's Office to work with the laity in searching for the sick, the poor, and the helpless, that they may be relieved. Will you do this gladly and willingly?

Answer I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you be diligent to frame and fashion your own lives, and the lives of your families, according to the Doctrine of Christ; and to make both yourselves and them, as much as in you lies, wholesome examples to the flock of Christ?

Answer I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you reverently obey your Bishop, and other Ministers, who, according to the Canons of the Church, may have charge and authority over you; following with a glad mind and a good will their godly admonitions?

Answer I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

The Ordinands then kneeling or standing, the congregation shall pray silently for the fulfillment of these purposes.

The Bishop shall say

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who has given you a good will to do all these things, grant you also the strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he has begun, you may be found perfect and without reproach on the last day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Ordinands kneel facing the Bishop. The Veni, Creator Spiritus or other hymn to the Holy Spirit may be sung or said as a prayer for the renewal of the Church.

The Ordination of the Deacons

All now stand as witnesses, except the Ordinands, who kneel facing the Bishop.

The Bishop then prays the following prayer, first saying

Let us pray.

O God, most merciful Father, we praise you for sending your Son Jesus Christ, who took on himself the form of a servant, and humbled himself, becoming obedient even to death on a cross. We praise you that you have highly exalted him, and made him Lord of all; and that, through him, we know that whoever would be great must be servant of all. We praise you for the many ministries in your Church, and for calling these your servants to the Order of Deacons.

Then the Bishop shall lay his hands upon the head of every one to be made Deacon, each one humbly kneeling before him, and he shall say

Receive the Holy Spirit for the Office and Work of a Deacon in the Church of God, now committed to you by the Imposition of Hands; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

In your great goodness, O Lord, make this your servant a Deacon in your Church; give him grace to be modest, humble, and constant in his ministry; give him a ready will to observe all spiritual discipline; and with the testimony of a good conscience always before him, may he continue stable and strong in the service of your Son Jesus Christ, to whom be glory and honor, world without end.

The people in a loud voice respond

AMEN.

The new Deacons are now vested according to the Order of Deacons.

Then the Bishop shall deliver to every one of them a Book of Gospels or New Testament saying
Take the Authority to read the Gospel in the Church of God and to preach the same.

As the Deacon is vested with a Maniple, the Bishop says

Receive this Maniple as a sign of your service, for your Lord came among us as one who served.

As the Deacon is vested with the Stole, the Bishop says

Receive this Stole as a sign of the yoke of Christ, your Savior.

As the Deacon is vested with the Dalmatic, the Bishop says

Receive this Dalmatic as a sign that you must daily take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm.

The Bishop then says to the people

 The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with your spirit.

The liturgy continues with the Offertory. The newly ordained Deacons prepare the Table.

When the Communion is finished, after the Post-Communion Prayer, the Bishop shall pray the following collect.

Go before us, O Lord, in all our doings, with your most gracious favor, and further us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy Name, and finally by your mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop shall then bless the people saying

 Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
People The maker of heaven and earth.
Bishop Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
People From this time forth forevermore.
Bishop The blessing, mercy, and grace of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you forever. Amen.

The newly ordained Deacon dismisses the people saying

 Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

The Form and Manner of Ordaining a Priest

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The people standing, the Bishop says

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

In place of the above, from Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost

Bishop Alleluia. Christ is risen.

Presenters We certify to you that he has satisfied the requirements of the Canons, and we believe him to be qualified for this order.

The Bishop shall then require the Ordinand to take the Oath of Conformity saying

The Canons require that no Deacon may be ordained a Priest in the Church until he has subscribed without reservation to the Oath of Conformity. It is also required that each Ordinand subscribe without reservation to the Oath of Canonical Obedience. The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The Exhortation and Examination

All are seated except the Ordinand, who stands before the Bishop.

The Bishop addresses the Ordinand as follows.

You have heard, during the Church's discernment of your vocation, in the sermon just preached and in the Holy Scriptures themselves, of what dignity, and of how great importance this Office is, to which you are called. And now again we exhort you, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you remember, into how high a Dignity, and to how weighty an Office and charge you are called: that is to say, to be a messenger, watchman, and steward of the Lord; to teach, and to warn, to feed and provide for the Lord's family; and to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for his children who are in the midst of this fallen world, that they may be saved through Christ forever.

Therefore always remember how great a treasure is committed to your charge. For they are the sheep of Christ, which he bought with his death, and for whom he shed his blood. The Church and Congregation whom you must serve, is his bride, and his body. And if it shall happen that the same Church, or any member thereof, takes any hurt or hindrance by reason of your negligence, you know the greatness of the fault, and also the grievous judgment that will ensue. For this reason consider the purpose of your ministry towards the children of God, towards the bride and Body of Christ; and see that you never cease your labor, your care and diligence, until you have done all that lies in you, according to your bounden duty, to bring all such as are or shall be committed to your charge, into that agreement in the faith and knowledge of God, and to that ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ, that there be no place left among you, either for error in religion, or for immorality in life.

Forasmuch then as your Office is both of such an importance, and so demanding, see with what great care and study you ought to apply yourself, as well to show yourself dutiful and thankful to that Lord, who has placed you in so high a dignity; as also to beware that neither you yourself offend, nor cause others to stumble. However, you cannot have a mind and will to do this by yourself; for that will and ability is given by God alone: therefore you ought, and have need, to pray earnestly for his Holy Spirit. And seeing that you cannot by any other means achieve the doing of so weighty a work pertaining to salvation, but with doctrine and exhortation taken from the Holy Scriptures and with a life consistent with the same; consider how studious you ought to be in reading and learning the Scriptures, and in framing the conduct of yourself, your household, and those committed to your care, according to the rule of the same Scriptures; and for this very reason, you ought to forsake and set aside, as much as you may, all worldly cares and studies.

We trust that you have thoroughly weighed these things long before this time; and that you have clearly determined, by God's grace, to give yourself wholly to this Office, to which it has pleased God to call you: so that, as much as lies in you, you will apply yourself wholly to this one thing, and direct all your cares and studies to this purpose; and that you will continually pray to God the Father, by the mediation of our only Savior Jesus Christ, for the heavenly assistance of the Holy Spirit; that, by daily reading and searching the Scriptures, you may grow mature and strong in your ministry; and be a wholesome and godly example for your people to follow.

And now, that this congregation of Christ may understand your mind and will in these things, and that your promise may the more move you to do your duties; you shall answer plainly to these things, which we, in the Name of God, and of his Church, shall demand of you concerning the same.

Do you believe in your heart, that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and according to the Canons of this Church, to the Order and ministry of the Priesthood?

Answer I so believe.

Bishop Do you believe that the Holy Scriptures contain all doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined, out of the said Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which may be concluded and proved by the Scriptures?

Answer I believe it, and have so determined, by God's grace.

Bishop Will you then give your faithful diligence always so to minister the doctrine, sacraments, and discipline of Christ, as the Lord has commanded, and as this Church has received the same, according to the Commandments of God; so that you may teach the people committed to your charge with all diligence to keep and observe the same?

Answer I will, by the help of the Lord.

Bishop Will you be ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Body of Christ all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's Word; and to use both public and private admonitions and exhortations, to the weak as well as the strong, within your charge, as need shall require, and occasion shall be given?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you be diligent in prayer, and in the reading of Holy Scripture, and in such study as may further the knowledge of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you be diligent to frame and fashion your own life, and that of your family, according to the doctrine of Christ; and to make both yourself and them, as much as you are able, wholesome examples and patterns to the flock of Christ?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you maintain and set forward, as much as you are able, quietness, peace, and love, among all Christian people, and especially among those who are or shall be committed to your charge?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop Will you reverently obey your Bishop, and other chief Ministers, who, according to the Canons of the Church, may have charge and authority over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions, and submitting yourself to their godly judgments?

Answer I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Ordinand then kneeling or standing, the congregation shall pray silently for the fulfillment of these purposes.

The Bishop shall say

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who has given you a good will to do all these things, grant you also the strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he has begun, you may be found perfect and without reproach on the last day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Ordinand kneels facing the Bishop. The Veni, Creator Spiritus shall be sung or said as a prayer for the renewal of the Church.

Veni, Creator Spiritus

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where Thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee, of both, to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:

Praise to Thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The Consecration of the Priest

All now stand as witnesses, except the Ordinand, who kneels facing the Bishop.

The Bishop then prays the following prayer, first saying

Let us pray.

Almighty God, and heavenly Father, who, in your infinite love and goodness towards us, has given to us your only and most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; who, after he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, sent into the whole world his Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors, and Teachers; by whose labor and ministry he gathered together a great flock in all parts of the world, to set forth the eternal praise of your holy Name: For these great benefits of your eternal goodness, and because you have called this your servant here present to the same Office and ministry, appointed for the salvation of all people, we offer to you our most hearty thanks; we praise and worship you; and we humbly ask you, through your blessed Son, that all we who call upon your holy Name, may continue to show ourselves thankful to you for these and all your other benefits; and that we may daily increase and go forward in the knowledge and faith of you and your Son, by the Holy Spirit. So that as well by this Minister, as by those entrusted to his care, your holy Name may be forever glorified, and your blessed kingdom enlarged.

The Bishop with the Priests present shall lay their hands upon the head of the one to receive the Order of Priesthood; the Ordinand humbly kneeling, and the Bishop saying

Receive the Holy Spirit for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed to you by the Imposition of our Hands; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Send your heavenly blessing upon this your servant; that he may be clothed with righteousness, and that your Word, spoken by his mouth(s), may have such success, that it may never be spoken in vain. Grant also, that we may have grace to hear and receive what he shall deliver out of your most holy Word as the means of our salvation; that in all our words and deeds we may seek your glory, and the increase of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, world without end.

The people in a loud voice respond

AMEN.

If more than one Ordinand is to be ordained, the Bishop shall lay his hands individually upon each one and pray the above prayer (beginning "Receive the Holy Spirit...") over each one.

The new Priest is now vested according to the Order of Priests.

The Bishop then gives the new Priest a Bible in one hand and a chalice in the other hand saying

Take authority to preach the Word of God and to administer the Holy Sacraments. Do not forget the trust committed to you as a Priest in the Church of God.

The new Priest is vested with a Stole, the Bishop saying

Take the yoke of the Lord, for his yoke is easy and his burden is light.

The new Priest is then vested with the Chasuble, the Bishop saying

Receive this priestly garment which symbolizes charity; for God is well able to give you an increase of charity and a perfect work.

The Bishop then anoints the hands of the new Priest, saying

Grant, O Lord, to consecrate and sanctify these hands by this unction, and by our blessing; that whatsoever they bless may be blessed, and whatsoever they consecrate may be consecrated and sanctified; in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Bishop then says to the people

 The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with your spirit.

The liturgy continues with the Offertory. Deacons prepare the Table.

Standing at the Holy Table, with the Bishop and other Ministers, the newly ordained Priest joins in the celebration of the Holy Communion and in the Breaking of the Bread.

When the Communion is finished, after the Post-Communion Prayer, the new Priest shall pray the following collect.

Go before us, O Lord, in all our doings, with your most gracious favor, and further us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy Name, and finally by your mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop shall then bless the people saying

 Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
People The maker of heaven and earth.
Bishop Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
People From this time forth forevermore.
Bishop The blessing, mercy, and grace of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you forever. Amen.

Or, at his direction, the Bishop may ask the newly ordained Priest to bless the people saying

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Deacon dismisses the people saying

 Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

The Form and Manner of Ordaining and Consecrating a Bishop

The Archbishop normally presides at the Consecration of a Bishop; however, the Archbishop may choose to designate another bishop to be the Chief Consecrator. When this happens, all rubrics referring to the Archbishop shall be taken to mean "Chief Consecrator."

A hymn, psalm, or anthem may be sung.

The people standing, the Archbishop says

Blessed be God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

In place of the above, from Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost

Archbishop Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Archbishop

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presentation

The Bishop Elect, properly vested, shall be presented to the Archbishop by at least two Bishops of this Church, the Bishops who present him saying

Most Reverend Father in God, we present to you N.N., a godly and well-learned man, to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop.

Then shall the Archbishop require Testimonials from the Secretary of the College of Bishops and the President of the Standing Committee regarding the person presented for Consecration, and shall cause them to be read.

The Archbishop shall then require the Bishop Elect to take the Oath of Conformity saying

The Canons of this Church require that no Priest may be consecrated as a Bishop in the Church until he has subscribed without reservation to the Oath of Conformity. In the presence of this congregation, I now charge you to make your solemn declaration of the same.

The Bishop Elect then declares

I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God and to contain all things necessary to salvation, and I consequently hold myself bound to conform my life and ministry thereto, and therefore I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of Christ as this Church has received them.

The Bishop Elect then signs the above Oath of Conformity in the sight of all present.

Then the Archbishop invites the congregation present to pray saying the following:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, it is written in the Gospel of Saint Luke that our Savior Christ continued the whole night in prayer, before he chose and sent forth his twelve Apostles. It is written also in the Acts of the Apostles, that the disciples at Antioch fasted and prayed before they sent forth Paul and Barnabas by laying their hands upon them. Let us, therefore, following the example of our Savior and his Apostles, offer up our prayers to Almighty God, before we admit and send forth this person presented to us, to do the work to which we trust the Holy Spirit has called him.

The Litany for Ordinations

All kneel. Then the Archbishop shall with the clergy and people present say or sing the Litany for Ordinations. The Bishop Elect shall either kneel or lie prostrate during the Litany.

At the conclusion of the Litany for Ordinations, the Archbishop shall stand and say the following collect, first saying

	The Lord be with you.
People	And with your spirit.
Archbishop	Let us pray.

Almighty God, who by your Son Jesus Christ gave many excellent gifts to your holy Apostles, and charged them to feed your flock; give your grace to all Bishops, the Pastors of your Church, that they may diligently preach your Word, duly administer your Sacraments, and wisely provide godly Discipline; and grant to your people that they may obediently follow the same, so that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory, through the merits of our Savior, Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The Exhortation and Examination

All are seated except the Bishop Elect, who stands before the Archbishop.

The Archbishop addresses and examines the Bishop Elect as follows.

Brother, the Holy Scriptures and the ancient Canons command that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to authority in the Church of Christ, which our Lord purchased with no less price than the shedding of his own blood; so before we admit you to this Office, we will examine you in certain Articles, in order that this congregation here present may know how you will conduct yourself in the Church of God.

Are you persuaded that you are truly called to this ministry, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Order of this Church?

Answer I am so persuaded.

The following questions are addressed to the Bishop Elect by one or more of the bishops.

Question Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary to eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?

Answer I am so persuaded, and determined, by God's grace.

Question Will you then faithfully study the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same; so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome Doctrine, and to withstand and convince those who contradict it.

Answer I will do so by the help of God.

Question Are you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange Doctrine contrary to God's Word; and both privately and publicly to call upon others and encourage them to do the same?

Answer I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you renounce all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live a godly, righteous, and sober life in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works for others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you.

Answer I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

Question Will you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all people; and diligently exercise such discipline as is, by the authority of God's Word and by the Order of this Church, committed to you?

Answer I will do so, by the help of God.

Question Will you be faithful in examining, ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Answer I will, by the help of God.

Question Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for the sake of Christ, to poor and needy people, and to all those in need of help?

Answer I will with God's help.

The Bishop Elect then kneeling or standing, the congregation shall pray silently for the fulfillment of these purposes.

The Archbishop shall say

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who has given you a good will to do all these things, grant you also the strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he has begun, you may be found perfect and without reproach on the last day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop Elect kneels or lies prostrate, facing the Archbishop. The Veni, Creator Spiritus shall be sung or said over him as follows.

Veni, Creator Spiritus

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where Thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
 And Thee, of both, to be but One;
 That, through the ages all along,
 This may be our endless song:

Praise to Thy eternal merit,
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The Consecration of the Bishop

All now stand as witnesses, except the Bishop Elect, who kneels facing the Archbishop.

The Archbishop then says this Prayer of Consecration.

Answer Lord, hear our prayer;
 And let our cry come to you.

Archbishop Let us pray.

Almighty God, and most merciful Father, of your infinite goodness you have given your only Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer, and to be the author of everlasting life. After he had made perfect our redemption by his death and resurrection, and was ascended into heaven, he poured down his gifts abundantly upon his people, making some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Teachers, for edifying and perfecting his Church. Grant to this your servant such grace, that he may be ever ready to propagate your Gospel, the good news of our reconciliation with you; and use the authority given to him, not for destruction, but for salvation; not for hurt, but for help; so that, as a wise and faithful steward, he will give to your family their portion in due season, and so may at last be received into everlasting joy.

Then the Archbishop, and at least two other Bishops, shall lay their hands upon the head of the Bishop Elect, the Archbishop and other Bishops saying

Receive the Holy Spirit for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed to you by the Imposition of our Hands; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The Archbishop then continues

Most merciful Father, send down upon this your servant your heavenly blessing; so endue him with your Holy Spirit, that he, in preaching your holy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke, with all patience and Doctrine; but may he also, to such as believe, present a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the Last Day he may receive the crown of righteousness, laid up by the Lord Jesus, our righteous Judge, who lives and reigns with you and the same Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.

The people in a loud voice respond

AMEN.

The new Bishop is now vested according to the Order of Bishops. During the presentations that follow, the Archbishop may be assisted by others.

Then the Archbishop shall present the new Bishop with the Holy Scriptures, saying

Give heed to reading, exhorting, and teaching. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that your growth in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ may be evident to all; in doing this you shall save both yourself and those who hear you. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, do not devour them; hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring back the lapsed, seek the lost. Do not confuse mercy with indifference; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd appears, you may receive the never fading crown of glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Archbishop presents him with a Pastoral Staff saying

Take this Staff and watch over the flock of Christ.

The Archbishop may anoint the forehead of the new Bishop with the Oil of Chrism saying

Receive the anointing of this oil, and remember continually to stir up the grace of God which is given to you; for God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and self control.

The Archbishop may give him a Pectoral Cross saying

Receive this Cross; remember that he whom you serve reconciled us by his own blood.

The Archbishop may give him an Episcopal Ring saying

Take this Ring; be faithful to the Bride of Christ.

The Archbishop may give him the Miter saying

Receive this Miter, and remember that the authority rests in God's Word and Holy Spirit.

The Archbishop then says to the people

	The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People	And with your spirit.

The liturgy continues with the Offertory. Deacons prepare the Table.

Standing at the Holy Table, with the Archbishop and other Ministers, the newly consecrated Bishop joins in the celebration of the Holy Communion and in the Breaking of the Bread.

When the Communion is finished, after the post-communion prayer, the new Bishop shall pray the following collect.

Go before us, O Lord, in all our doings, with your most gracious favor, and further us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy Name, and finally by your mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Archbishop, or at his direction the newly consecrated Bishop, shall then bless the people saying

	Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
People	The maker of heaven and earth.
Bishop	Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
People	From this time forth forevermore.
Bishop	The blessing, mercy, and grace of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you forever. Amen.

The Deacon dismisses the people saying

People Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.
 Thanks be to God.
